

The 2014 Workshop of the Global Network on Social Capital and Health

Monday, October 6 – Tuesday, October 7, 2014

List of Speakers (as of September 4, 2014)

Tentative

Name:	Institution:	Title:
Dov Chernichovsky	Ben-Gurion University of the Negev	The enigma of the Association between religiosity and longevity among Jews in Israel
G. Nathan Dong	Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health	Social Networks and Health Service Demand: Evidence from the U.S. and China
Sherman Folland	Oakland University	How Can Urban Areas Improve Their Community Social Capital? Explorations
Natallia Gray	South East Missouri State University	Social Interactions and Breast Cancer Prevention: Evidence from women over Age 50 in the U.S.: Evidence from Surveys of Women over Age 50 in the U.S.
Florence Jusot	Université Paris- Dauphine	Inequality of Opportunity in Health in Indonesia
Audrey Laporte	University of Toronto	A Theoretical model of the interactions of Social and Health Capital: Implications for the Estimation of Dynamic Structural Models using Panel Data
Martin Ljunge	Research Institute of Industrial Economics (IFN)	Social Capital and Health: Evidence that Trust Promotes Health
Lorenzo Rocco	University of Padova	Grandfather and Grandson
Nicolas Sirven	Université Paris 5 – Sorbonne Paris Cité	Does Taking Part in Social Activities Prevent the Disablement Process?
Judith Walsh	University of NC at Charlotte	The Impact Of Assistive Technology Device Use On The Participation Levels Of Older Adults In America
Xindong XUE	Zhongnan Univ. of Economics and Law	How does social capital matter to health status? Evidence from China